in 1967 operation tuscaloosa sent 2nd battalion 5th marines into the hostile song thu bon valley their mission to exterminate the viet cong but a sandbar island in the river quickly became an island of death for the marines as point man for the lead squad of hotel company 2 5 john culbertson tells the full bloody story of the battle morning was always a welcome sight to us it meant two things the first was that we were still alive in 1967 death was the constant companion of the marines of hotel company 2 5 as they patrolled the paddy dikes mud and mountains of the arizona territory southwest of da nang but john culbertson and most of the rest of hotel company were the same lean fighting marines who had survived the carnage of operation tuscaloosa hotel s grunts walked over the enemy not around him in graphic terms john culbertson describes the daily dangerous life of a soldier fighting in a country where the enemy was frequently indistinguishable from the allies fought tenaciously and thought nothing of using civilians as a shield though he was one of the top marksmen in 1st marine division sniper school in da nang in march 1967 a class of just eighteen chosen from the division s twenty thousand marines culbertson knew that against the vc and the nva good training and experience could carry you just so far but his company s mission was to find and engage the enemy whatever the price this riveting bloody first person account offers a stark testimony to the stuff u s marines are made of
