teaching adolescents and learning from them is the paradigm elaborated throughout this second edition of adolescents in the internet age the premise is based upon four assumptions 1 adolescents have unique experiences that qualify them as the most credible source on what growing up is like in the current environment 2 adolescents are more competent than many adults with tools of technology that will be needed for learning in the future 3 adolescents and adults can support mutual development by adopting the concept of reciprocal learning and 4 the common quest of adolescents to gain adult identity could be attained before employment expectations are the theme for every chapter the reason expectations are so important is because they influence goals determine priorities and are used to evaluate progress and achievements of individuals and institutions when teacher expectations correspond with the abilities and interests of students achievement and satisfaction are common outcomes in contrast if teachers expect too little student potential can be undermined there is also concern if expectations that students have for themselves surpass their abilities this occurs if teachers do not inform students about their deficits multitasking doing too many things at the same time detracts from productivity sharing accountability depends upon complimentary and attainable expectations that can be met by students teachers and parents to support appropriate expectations this book for secondary teachers and high school students seeking a broader understanding of their own generation is organized in four parts about aspects of learning and development 1 identity expectations introduce traditional perspectives on adolescence changes related to sources of learning evolving emphasis of schools and ways to support motivation goal setting and formation of identity 2 cognitive expectations examine mental abilities academic standards emergence of the internet as a learning tool development of media literacy creative problem solving and encouragement of higher order thinking skills 3 social expectations explore the need for giving greater attention to social development importance of teamwork skills involvement with social networking adoption of civil behavior school safety and values as a basis for ethical behavior and character 4 health expectations center on decisions that influence physical health well being and lifestyle choice consideration is given to stress management emotional intelligence and risk assessment strategies for individual teenagers and the schools that they attend the victory of the pakatan harapan ph or the alliance of hope on may 9 2018 in the malaysian 14th general election ge14 was not just stunning but historic moreover the second comeback of tun dr mahathir mohamad as the seventh prime minister of malaysia was indeed impressive the results of the ge14 were clearly against the tide as many political pundits and analysts had predicted a win for the barisan nasional bn coalition with differences only in matters of margins similar to malaysia s 13th general election ge13 which was held on may 5 2013 the main issue in the ge14 was also about the economy the rise in cost of living was perhaps the mother of all issues which caused the downfall of the bn government for the first time since independence other crucial economic issues centered on alleged corruption practices and manifested through the 1malaysia development berhad 1mdb saga as a new federal power for 22 months the ph government had a daunting task not just to address economic issues mentioned above but also the other alleged economic problems which they had highlighted in their election manifesto on top of that the ph government had the responsibility to maintain if not to improve further what the bn government had done to the malaysian economy in the past of which world bank economists described as a success story a very strong economy and growing towards a high income post ge14 what is the state of the malaysian economy and its direction what are lessons that can be learned from the ph economic management and with the perikatan nasional pn government succeeding the federal power in march 2020 in the midst of the covid 19 pandemic what are the pressing issues and what needs to be done moving forward especially in the context of the economic challenges arising from the pandemic and post covid 19 era these are some critical questions which this book is trying to address the book essentially argues for the need to give greater focus to economic issues above anything else by envisioning a new national vision and engineering a new wave of economic structural reforms primarily based on insights from the vast Malaysian economic history lessons

Incoherence is a term that is all too often associated with the public international law regime to a great extent its incoherence is arguably a natural consequence of the fragmented nature of both the development and overall scope of the discipline despite significant achievements since the universal declaration of human rights 1948 a coherent human rights regime that is properly integrated with other branches of public international law is still lacking this book explores this incoherent approach to human rights including specific challenges that arise as a result of the creation and regulation of legal relationships between parties state and non state that sit outside of the human rights framework with a view to considering how it may be remedied divided into three parts the collection provides a critical exploration of various challenges and barriers related to the absence of human rights in some instances contemporary emergence of rights and a lack of rights fulfilment in others these three situations are considered within the wider context of and difficulties facing a human rights based approach to international law each of the three parts aligns with one of the three prime responsibilities and duties of states in respect of international human rights to promote to protect and to fulfil the contributions represent different perspectives in international law and human rights and how the global agenda of promoting human rights the rules based international order and multilateralism requires further strengthening the lens of incoherence providing a means to understand particular inconsistencies chapters focus upon subjects including international investment law international financial contracts the arms trade indigenous peoples rights rights of peasants the right to a clean healthy and sustainable environment the right to food and transitional justice presenting a critical exploration of key contemporary challenges and the implementation of human rights law in different contexts the collection will be of interest to a wide ranging audience of international law and international relations scholars and practitioners and students of law politics and globalisation across the world
